September must be right around the corner. And that is very significant for families, for offices, for schools, for churches.

Are you ready for autumn? Was summer as meaningful as you had hoped?

The prophet in a downer message says, "The harvest is past, the summer has ended, and we are not saved." Jeremiah 8:20

Has summer slipped away? We've all been prompted spiritually in various ways, have I acted on the Spirit's promptings? The cold is coming. Now is the time to look to Jesus; to obey him; to fall madly in love with him.

As we prepare for the fall together as a church, may I give a few reminders:

- Our 25th annual Labor of Love run is set for Monday, September 7. Visit www.the-chapel.org/laboroflove.
- Start the fall by making prayer a priority. You can join the men of Prayer Partners this Friday morning with our 6:30am kick-off (Green Campus). Also, every Wednesday, you can be a part of a group that meets at 6:45pm to pray at both campuses.

In Green, we'll study the rest of this final book of the Bible. "The End" will probe the meaning and relevancy of Revelation to today.
